

Rajeev Sharma
Chief Human Resources Officer, Royal Enfield

Mr. Rajeev Sharma joined Royal Enfield as the Chief Human Resource officer (CHRO) in November 2015.

He is an engineer with post-graduation in HR from XLRI, Jamshedpur.

His experience as a human resource professional spans across 20+ years in significant HR leadership roles at prominent brands such as Hindustan Unilever Ltd., Coca Cola India, GE Capital International Services/Genpact.

Rajeev joined Royal Enfield from Tetra Pak, where he led and managed HR functions for South, East Asia and Oceania.

He had been contributing to strategic aspects of business with a stout focus on talent development, succession planning, capability building and support capacity creation to achieve the intended business goals.

He is a seasoned professional with a track record for successfully delivering HR strategy to achieve business outcomes in multi-geography and multi-cultural settings.